

~22nd March 1999~

Again, just Lilian, Les and Eileen met. No Salumet this time, but 2 other communications spoke through Eileen:

Are you happy with winding machine? (Referring to Leslie's old reel-to-reel recorder)

Les: Yes thank you, it is working properly now.

I will try to speak quietly. I did not expect to be joining with you this time. I was warned that this voice might be troublesome this time, but I come to you my dear one to say 'how are you'?

Les: Oh, not too bad. I don't feel too well—I get a lot of trouble of course with breathing and sleeping, but I look forward to going to my family and in that part of the country I may begin to find the benefit of different air and the sea atmosphere.

Yes, it is something that many of you lack, is good air. This was never a problem in my time. I have come to you both this time to say are there questions you need to have answered.

Les: No, I don't have, but the lady (Lilian) but I'm sure the work is going to continue—in other places, in different ways perhaps, but I think the lady would like reassurance that that is going to happen.

I am told that this reassurance has already been given to you.

Les: Yes it has but I think the lady would like it implemented.

Ah ha, I see.

Les: We don't doubt what has been told us, but being human there are always doubts as to whether it will.

It will continue. Much good work must continue. All learning cannot be denied. You may dismiss it, you may place it to one side, but it cannot be forgotten. It is up to you and your choices whether you continue or whether you leave it be.

Les: That's where our free will comes in, isn't it?
Yes, I do not wish to tell you what you already know but for the sake of the lady I am happy to say that once again you can be at peace and know that all learning will continue.

Les: Good, very nice, because I know that everyone in the two groups is very anxious to continue the work in the best possible way. I've had some lovely letters and comments from them all as to how it has changed their lives what they have learned here and they wish to continue to learn more.

Learning is a never-ending process and to think it is, leaves you well mistaken in your thinking.

Les: I agree—learning is a constant on-going thing, isn't it?

We in our world continue to learn—each moment shows us new teachings. No one should assume that they know too much.

Les: We were told a long time ago that if we ever thought that you would stop coming to us!

If you were to so believe that your knowledge was such that you needed no more, then why should we come? We would leave you to your own ego.

Les: And our own ignorance.

Yes.

Les: Yes, I agree. No we shall never fall into that trap.

I know this—I know.

Les: In all the years that I have been learning, what it has taught me more than anything else is that there is so much more to learn.

Yes, I can assure you because I too am still learning and I have never fallen into the trap of believing that I know too much.

Les: No, it is such a fascinating subject, and it has been going on since Creation, so of course there is so much to learn and we have lovely teachers who come to us and we greatly appreciate what we have been told in the course of our years here.

Yes. It can only get greater the knowledge that you will be given. Many desire to come to help each one who has been given the opportunity by such as yourselves, who have created many groups around your world.

Les: Yes, there are many people like us who wish to teach others and I am hoping—and this is not a question for you to answer, this is merely a statement, that when I do get into my new house, I shall still in some way be able to be of service.

Yes, I am told once more, yes you have been given this answer.

Les: Yes. As I say, I did not want you to think that this was a leading question but I am pleased to know that I shall be able to continue in some way.

(Eileen coughed) Excuse this voice. It is troublesome, is it not?

Les: Would some water help the instrument?

No, no, we will deal with it, thank you.

Les: Thank you. Yes, it's nice to know that I shall be of use again.

Again? Why do make that statement, 'again'?

Les: I'll continue to be of use. My apologies, wrong statement.

Yes, that is better, yes—you have never ceased.

Les: Just a temporary break and then I can continue.

Break? You have no break—you continue to work on our side.

Les: Good! Yes, that's very pleasing to know also that I am with you at night.

You will be aware when you join us friend, of how much each one of you contribute to your spiritual lives although mainly unaware of it.

Yes, I feel the wind in your hair, I see great light in your eyes, I see great joy in your heart.

Les: Yes I know I've made the right decision this time—to go.

Why do you friends have such difficulties in making these life decisions?

Les: Yes it is a problem. Last year, when my children were broaching the subject and wanting me to go, I didn't realize that my health would deteriorate and I thought I could carry on.

Always struggle, struggle, struggle. We see so many of you struggle, when you should be inwardly knowing, inwardly know.

Les: Yes, I knew this time that it was the right thing to do.

Yes. I am saddened sometimes that my own race of people upon this planet have lost so much in the way of going inward and finding correct answers to these many difficulties which beset you at times.

Les: They have become materialistic have they? Some—it has been difficult for many to sustain the knowledge which had been gained over many, many lengths of time. Circumstances have changed and I have to say they did not adapt well to these changes.

Les: It must be disappointing for you to know that and to see it happening.

Of course, but we cannot allow disappointment in our world, otherwise it would be served badly upon those whom we think upon. But yes, it saddens me at times.

Les: It must do, when you realise that so much could be gained.

So many of the people in your world are now beginning to realize how they must return to the thinking of older civilizations. It is coming.

Les: It is happening isn't it—it is coming more and more so.

Yes, yes. May I speak to the lady now?

Les: Yes, please do.

Yes. I would wish to say this to you—and let me say I am more prone to speaking with the gentlemen. It is something that still remains with me when I return to this physical condition that women never were spoken to for advice. So, if I speak abruptly to you, I ask your forgiveness.

Lilian: That's fine.

It is not the lack of knowledge, but the conditions, which bring my speech a little harshly to you. Yes, I see a future for you also bright, not perhaps what you have anticipated, but nevertheless a future full of love and brightness and a new understanding of spiritual matters.

Lilian: That's the important thing.

Yes. There have at times been along your pathway some little doubts as to the authenticity of some things given, but I can say to you now, you have reached a turning when many matters will be clarified for you. Go, go forward with renewed hope and understanding and love for all your fellow man.

Lilian: I'll remember what you've said—I'll keep it in mind.

Yes, you have the opportunity now to take great strides forward and as always the choice is yours. Thank you for listening to my words, friend.

Lilian: Thank you for the encouragement, it's a great help.

I am always, if I may say so, still bemused by women in your world today. I do not say this with disrespect to women, but in my time men were the great speakers and great doers, but of course women did have their place of importance if a little known.

Les: In many respects I think the women were much more important than the men.

Yes, I now agree, but of course when I lived upon your earth I would have disputed those words, although I have to say I could see great spirituality in our women.

Les: It always puzzled me why men should think about women like that, because if it hadn't been for the woman as the mother, man with all his knowledge would not have existed. So he was dependent upon the women anyway.

In the physical sense yes, but man, especially men on the planet at the time when I was here, believed that women were only given these great opportunities because of men and the great spirit. We denied them in a sense their true identities. Although we offered much to the great spirit, we did wrong at times by our own women folk.

Les: Never mind that's all past now and of course, in the present circumstances in which you live, equality is recognized, isn't it?

Equality does not exist, because we all are male and female, so there is no such thing.

Les: No, no—it was the wrong word to use, it's a physical word.

No, no I understood your meaning, but I wanted to make it clear to you. I will leave you now. I have been warmly welcomed by you both. I hope my words have brought some comfort to you.

Lilian: Yes they have.

Les: They have, indeed and we are very, very grateful to you for having visited us and of course your words, as you well know, are being recorded and they will be passed on to other people and to your instrument.

Yes, I have to say winding machine is still a puzzlement to me. Breath in the air I understand, but winding machine is most puzzling.

Les: It's very useful, because many have been able to learn of your words by hearing the recordings that have been made.

Yes, I know and when I say puzzling, it is puzzling whilst I am in this condition, you understand? (affirmation) I do know and understand of course, but when we return to earthly conditions, much becomes clouded—most strange.

Les: Yes, it must be like a fog to you.

Yes, but as I leave you now I have to say to you that Great Elk asks of you.

Les: That's very nice, he is a great friend of mine.

Yes, and I will leave you with those words.

Les: And I look forward to meeting him one day. You have many to meet. Yes—and thank you lady. (General thanks)

Another followed through Eileen:

I've been most interested listening about what you want in your tomorrows and I felt I had to come and say just a few words to you both. That it takes some time to realize that tomorrow is the result of your desire today.

Les: Of course.

So I want to remind both of you that each moment is being created and making your future. It would seem to me that there have been many discussions about what your future holds. That is why I decided to come to you both this time. May I just say to you: Do not keep your thoughts too much for the future. May I suggest to you both that your thinking remain in the NOW.

Les: Yes, I understand what you mean—I think you do Lilian too, don't you? (Yes.) Now is the future.

Yes, what we have spoken of already is the past and that cannot be changed, but the result of the past, the desire, the thought, is created for the future. Therefore it is most important that you do not allow this moment in time to be wasted with fruitless thoughts of the future. Do you follow what I am telling you? (affirmations) It is distressing to see so much distress in your world, because people are unaware of their own wasted thoughts. So I just wished I could come to you to tell you this, to live for this moment—

Les: Yes we do understand.

—and I don't mean live in the moment selfishly. I know you understand what I am telling you. Therefore, please remember when you are distressed, when there is stress in your lives, bring yourselves back to the thinking of the moment. Please, please take these words seriously, because we see so many from your world who have regrets—regrets because of it. You cannot capture what is passed, therefore to make a brighter future for yourselves, may I also suggest before you allow extraneous thoughts and words, to think carefully and allow only those thoughts of good to come to fruition to create your future.

Les: Yes, that certainly is very good advice, because one day we shall have to face that future.

Yes. I would perhaps add, because there is a lot spoken about Karma in your world and what is Karma if it is not the result of your desire and thought. It is your tomorrow, that is all. I would like dispel some of the thinking about what you call Karma, but that is not my task this time.

Les: I see. Well, we do appreciate what you have told us.

I will leave you now. Know that I am surrounding you with beautiful thinking of each of your futures. It has been a great pleasure to me to join you. It is not often I am allowed to join such a small group and I have to tell you I feel most comfortable with it. Now I bid you good night. (thanks and farewells)
