

~6th September 1999~

Eileen was away as another grandchild had just been born, so there was no Salumet. However other mediums were present and the evening started with one through Sue:

I am happy to be here and wish you all good evening. May I say firstly what joy it brings us to have our little lamb returned to the fold and we wish you welcome my dear. (Sara Martin, who used to come regularly, was able to join us again.) They always return if it is required, do they not? Yes they think that their time perhaps has finished and their work complete, but believe me, once we have you, we do not relinquish you lightly unless you specifically ask not to be involved. And may I say, how infrequently that occurs, does it not?

Lilian: I'm sure it doesn't happen much.

Those who come as ships in the night are not necessarily required for the work and we let them go. That does not mean we are not grateful for what they have given, but what they give is not always required for this work. Do I make myself clear, you understand me? (General agreement) Everyone who has passed through these doors and the doors of our dear Mr Bone and others in other groups unknown to you people here, everyone has had some purpose, even if it has been for a very short time. Others leave the groups and go on to other spiritual matters, but I say again, when we have you on the hook, we don't throw you back. (Chuckles) So, I jest but I seriously welcome our friend and know that anything that she brings to this group can only be good and useful. Welcome dear lady, welcome.

Sara: Thank you.

Perhaps you could tell our dear friend who normally sits in this position (Eileen) that at the birth of her baby, or should I say her grand-baby, there was a spiritual doctor on hand. We have been around the lady for some time.

Lilian: I will pass the message on.

It is not a problem, there is no need for any concern, but we did feel it necessary to have one of our people close at hand this time. But it may bring her some comfort if you tell this to her. Thank you.

Lilian: And she can listen to what you are saying, because this is being recorded.

Yes I believe you do some miraculous things with different sorts of equipment. We obviously do not fully comprehend the workings, but know that they do allow others to hear what we say. It is obviously of great benefit and can only spread the word of Spirit to farther, farther fields, am I not correct?

Lilian: Yes, it is very useful—

But also dear friends let me say that word of mouth is equally important, do you understand my meaning? (Yes—) I know that each and every one of you has been in conversation with others and you have also to yourselves. I would love to tell my friend, my doctor, my social person what I do, what I get up to, what I believe, but goodness me, it is difficult. They will only laugh, they will only consider me to be, how do you say, round the bend? (Giggles) But surely you realize that when the opportunity is right, someone gives you a little push and the words come tumbling out. Have you not all experienced something of that? (General agreement) Yes, and suddenly you are speaking and people are listening and the message has been relayed to someone else, am I not correct? (Yes—) And am I not correct in say that in most instances every one of you in this room has become involved in the work because of what somebody has said to you? (Yes—) You were none of you born in the spiritual knowledge, it is only what you have been told by others that has opened your mind, made you ask questions and made you want to know more. And are you learning my friends, are you learning?

(General agreement) I did not need to ask that question, I know. I know that as the years have gone on, your knowledge has become greater and you have become more aware of what is around you and what there is to do.

Lilian: There is no end to the learning, is there? I say to you dear lady, that no matter how high you travel in Spirit, each moment is a learning process. The gentleman, I use that word for simplicity, the gentleman who comes to speak we you through the lady normally sat here, (Eileen) he learns every moment and what he learns he imparts to others in a simplified manner, you understand? (Yes.) He cannot, he cannot obviously teach you higher and higher subjects, because—and this is no detriment to yourselves, your human brain is not good enough to take in that knowledge. So he simplifies and teaches what he feels is beneficial, but as your years continues you are learning more and more and in some cases it is becoming a little more complex, is that true? (Yes.) And that makes you ask questions does it not, in your mind, if not in your voice, yes? And that is good. Question, question, always question, do not accept it without question. That is not the purpose of his teaching. We want you to question. We want you to say to yourselves, well we have heard that, now let me see what I can make of it—why did he say that and what does it mean—and the more you question, the more you have a light come here in the mind and that shows you that Spirit is entering into your thoughts and that can only be good, can it not? (Yes.) We wish, desperately we wish that we could remove all the shackles of your earthly body and let you see what is to come, but unfortunately we have to be as patient as you. It will come, greater knowledge will come, but at the present all that we can do is impart what we can in the hope that it will blossom in your mind and in your hearts and I can say quite happily that, without exception, that is what is happening to you all. It brings us immense satisfaction when we know that a tiny, tiny drop of knowledge which has come down like a tear —lands, and, like water, spreads out into a pool, because from a pool becomes a lake and from a lake becomes a sea and from a sea becomes a vast, vast, ocean. And that vast ocean of knowledge is available to each one if they wish to learn, and we are honoured, I repeat we are honoured to be able to impart what we know to people such as yourselves, who seem to have such a thirst to know what we can teach you. We thank you, we thank you each one, for allowing us to be with you. Even in your sleep state we do endeavour to teach you a little, a little every time. Now before I leave you I have to say there is someone here who is parting on a journey, am I correct?

Paul: Yes, me.

May I ask the gentleman if he is ready and prepared for his journey?

Paul: I have still got things to do, but I've got about a week. Do you mean mentally prepared? Yes, I do not mean, my dear young man, my dear friend, I do not mean have you packed enough clothes. (Giggles) No I joke you, you don't mind if I have a little joke with you, it lightens the atmosphere. No, whether you have got your socks and whether they are in pairs or not I really don't know. No, you are right, I did mean, are you mentally prepared for your journey?

Paul: I don't have a very clear idea of where I am going, apart from a few jungle areas to see the wildlife.

Yes, well let me tell you, we know exactly where you are going, but I am not here to give you a map, no. I mean to tell you that we know where you are heading to, because it was the Spirit that has organized this for you. Do you not realize that?

Paul: I realize that the Spirit is trying to organize it, but I am not sure whether I get the messages. Well, that is human nature isn't it, always thinking to themselves, no that can't be right. But know, dear friend, seriously for a moment I say to you that your journey, wherever it will lead you, will be of great, and I cannot emphasize this enough, great spiritual worth. There is a reason you are going on this latest journey and it will become apparent when you are some way through it. I say no more, I do not want to put words into your mind, but I do ask you to open your mind. You have a very good, sharp mind. Please open it and listen to what you hear. Will you do that please for us?

Paul: I will yes.

Now, do that and your feet on your pathway will be light and your heart will be singing, and finally I say to you, don't forget to pack what you call your sun tan cream!

Paul: Yes—thank you.

May I ask the older gentleman (George) please, how are you finding your new-found experiences?

George: Well, I've got a lot happening at the moment and the electronic hearing aids are enabling me to hear the words quite well. I have been disappointed in recent sessions that I have not been able to hear the words, although I have been able to listen to the tape afterwards. But now I am wearing the hearing aids for the first time in a session and happily I am able to hear the words.

I am pleased, but let me just say to you this: that is the physical hearing. You could you know listen to Spirit if you just enabled us to come in just a little further than you do. We are not unhappy with your progress; far from it, in fact you have surprised us all, and I do not say that in jest, or I am not being rude, but we are delighted with what you have achieved, even though you are sometimes unaware exactly what that is. But we would ask you please to listen a little more with your Spirit and not with your physical. But we are delighted that physically things are a little louder for you.

George: Yes, thank you, I'm much relieved that it's working.

But, please in quiet times sit and listen without your physical hearing. We are not saying that we expect you to stop everything that you are doing, but we recommend in your instance that you do try to find a quiet time now. It is time that you did this. Yes, will you do that for us please?

George: I thank you for that advice. I have been very concerned about my writing. I felt that the book I want to get published is linked quite heavily to the Work. I have found it difficult to apportion things between the physical mind and the Spirit in this context.

Yes I am aware of your problems, but please it is of no consequence and no matter. You will see in time exactly what you have achieved and why. I wish you good fortune.

George: Thank you for your words and I shall endeavour to do as you say.

That would be of benefit, thank you. Thank you for allowing me the opportunity to speak with you.

Now I will leave you. I thank you for enabling me to speak with you this time and I apologize if any of my words you considered to be inappropriate, but I feel that at times it is necessary to show that the people in Spirit also have a bright and lighter side. It is not all doom and gloom and prophecies, far from it. I thank you once again for allowing me to come to your home. I wish you all God's love; may surround you all and the lightness of Spirit be in your hearts. (General thanks)

Another came through Sue to bring a message: Someone is saying that there is a little boy who has to be given lots of attention when he is older, because he is going to be very clever with his hands and somebody says that people won't realize and they probably won't realize what he wants to do. But you have got to give him lots of attention and listen to him when he tells you what he wants to do, because he will know what he wants to do and he has got to do it. I don't know what that means but that is what I have got to say. They are saying that it might seem strange what he is asking for but not to be surprised. Let him do what he wants with his hands because it's going to be important when he is a much older little boy. (This was a message for Sara)
