Good evening. (general greetings)

I wish to say to you my dear friends, the spiritual light in this place tonight is so very bright. The spiritual light which emanates from each one of you is indeed something to behold. I know that you are not aware of this, but please accept from me that it is so. (Yes, thank you.) This time most of it will be taken by each individual's own development, but before I leave you to this, I would like to say something to you: Each one of you within this room this time in the coming year of your earthly life, there will be a significant change for each one of you and dependent upon each individual's own awareness and growth, will these changes be accepted or rejected. But what I wish to say to you my dear friends is this, that these changes coming to each one of you—and I would say it may not only be change for your own selves, but may involve those close to you—but nevertheless they will be significant changes, which should affect your awareness and your spiritual growth. Remember these words, because my dear friends it will only be in retrospect that you will see and remember my words this time. Each of you are going forward in your life's plan, and although there have been instances of hesitation and displacement shall we say, most of you are travelling the correct pathway. So keep this in mind also as you progress through this next one of your earthly life, your earthly year. All I will say now is that I would like to work quietly this time with this instrument, and if you my dear friend (Lilian) will take over and allow those others who wish to speak or those who wish to be guided, and let those who come close by you come a little closer. As I have said, this time will be used for your own individual development and next time we meet I will again speak to you of new subjects.

Lilian: Yes we look forward to that. Perhaps at the end of this year, if we can compare the months that have gone by we shall remember your words.

Yes, I ask that you do please. I go always leaving my love and my light with you. (thanks and farewells)
