

~1ST May 2006~

Good evening. (General greetings)

As we join together this time we offer thanks for all communications and connections made this time in the name of the Great Creative Force. We give thanks for all that we are. That having been said, let me say to you my dear friends: I intend to speak to you all whether your numbers be few or many next time concerning those beings who have never trodden the earthly pathway and the connection that they have with each planetary force and vibration. We have not spoken about the planetary forces before, so this for you my dear friends, should be new territory of learning. Therefore we will consider that information for next time. Because we are few in number, (5) I feel it would be appropriate this time to help those from our world who are in need of your help. This is also something which will be connected to my talk to you next time: how you are used, my dear friends, in the use of healing. Much has been spoken about healing, but I do not think I have discussed with you in what way you are used as individuals. Therefore I will leave you this time and allow those who need help to come forward.

Lilian: Yes, we'll do what we can to help them.

Paul: Yes, and we'll look forward to next time.

We will endeavour to try to use as many within this room as possible. There are many who are awaiting your voice and your help. I leave you as ever cloaked and bathed in the love of spirit, knowing my dear friends that you continue forward in your knowledge and your work.

Sarah: Could I just ask before you go Salumet, you said that there are those waiting to come—all those who are going to come this evening, they are aware that they are going to come, they are not just ones who are going to be brought because they think they are ready to come.

There will be a mixture and those from our side will endeavour to bring those most in need. But remember also my dear friend that these dear ones are so confused.

Sarah: If we know that they know they are being brought back that puts a slightly different slant on it. When they don't know they are coming, sometimes it can be quite difficult.

That is the purpose of your good work.

Lilian: I'm sure with help with your side we shall be able to help.

They would not be brought to you unless we thought they could be helped. Of course there are many who still refuse to accept, but their vibration is lighter for just being here with you. So you see, no matter what happens within this room, those we bring to you will receive the help that they need.

Lilian: That's encouraging.

Rod: Presumably this is over a long period—not just tonight but over the coming months, to send our healing to those people.

My dear friend, your thoughts for any other human being is great and it is never forgotten. Not only does it help with your own spiritual growth, but every good and light thought that you send for another is a gift to you. Yes, I would say always send thoughts of help for those in need, because as the others may understand but you may not, unless we are asked for help, we cannot intervene, we cannot interfere in another's life without being asked. So it is most important for those thoughts to be sent.

Rod: Yes—on a daily basis.

That my dear friend is entirely up to you and how you think—but on a daily basis is indeed very good.

Lilian: Well, thank you for coming tonight and we look forward to the next meeting.

Paul: Just a quick one on-thought, on what Rod was saying: is it okay to send general thoughts out to mankind or is it better to be specific to certain people?

Thank you for your question. Of course your thoughts can be more general than for individual people. Have I not told you that any thought is never wasted? And after all, collective thought is powerful and in the same way an individual thought for many is also expansive. We can use your thought for many and utilize it thus.

Paul: Ah—good...I quite like to do the 'many' thoughts as one.

Yes, we know your thoughts shine brightly for all of your planet. (Thank you.)

Now I must take my leave this time and allow those in need of help to step forward. (General thanks and farewells)