

SALUMET – 9th August 2010

Lilian: Welcome to you Salumet.

Good evening.

All: Good evening.

Firstly, my dear friends, let us welcome back the one who has been absent for a little while—absent only in the physical, but not spiritually, because, as you know, once connection has been made with us, then it is never broken. This applies to all those who are not here this evening, also. You all, my dear friends, have become a spiritual union, a union that has become strengthened as time has continued. For this we ask many blessings that you may go forward and continue to grow individually, in the most spiritual way that you can. Each one of you has, no doubt, given thought to your own mortality upon this Earth, and of course, that is only human, but let me tell you, my dear friends, that this spiritual union will always form in times to come—that joining cannot be broken.

This time, I do not intend to speak with you too long, because as you know, there are many close by who are waiting to inspire you, to help you, to guide you, and unless you give of your time—they strive, on occasions, to get each one of you in that quiet time. So you see when the opportunity is there for them, they cannot let it pass by. So this evening, my dear friends, you will, I am sure, feel an ‘overshadowment’ of your spirit friends, who wish to come close to you to offer you guidance along your pathway, in order for you to continue growing. I will answer any questions you may have, and then I will leave you in the most capable hands of our dear lady friend. Have you any questions this time?

Lilian: George?

George: Yes—I’m sure we have. Firstly, I’d like to say that we’ve had a reply back from Australia, following our latest transcript, and the person concerned has been reading quite avidly, and has quoted your words, Salumet, back to me—from a previous occasion—so that is rather nice. I thought I’d like to mention that.

Yes, I did tell you there would be many links in other parts of your world on subjects we touch upon, and this, my dear friend, I am sure you have found to be so.

George: It is happening, yes (yes). I expect you know already, but I felt I’d like to mention it, none the less.

And I give thanks to you for it. I am always happy to hear the words expressed, because I come to you, to speak with you with your Earthly words and it fills me with great joy to hear you use those Earthly words, especially words of great love and comfort which you do each time you come together—each time you send your thoughts for those dear people in much need for healing. If only you could realise the joy that it brings, not only to me who is a voice, but to those who stand close by you.

(Yes indeed, a light-being comes to us as a voice, as distinct from those Earthly spirits who have form and stand close)

George: That’s a good thought. Another we’ve heard back from—has mentioned one named Luis Fernando, a South American gentleman who also has had extra-terrestrial communication, and has written books about it. It’s nice to know that this is also happening on the other side of our world, and we have spoken about—I think it’s called: ‘multi-dimensional doorways’. We have spoken about this in relation to the ‘Bermuda Triangle’—and a multi-dimensional doorway being there—and, I think you said on that occasion that there are a number of such doorways about our planet (yes). And in connection with Luis Fernando’s work, there would appear to be one—the pre-Incan ‘doorway of the sun’, near Lake Titicaca—that would seem to be another one. Would you wish to speak at all on this? Are you able to confirm any of this to us?

I will confirm only that there are many of these ‘doorways’, as you put it simply. There is much still for your men of the Earth to learn, and at this particular time, it is not necessary for us to enter into the complexity of the universes. It is enough, my dear friends, that the knowledge is reaching people who are ready to receive—that is what is important. The fact that you can join together, and compare—I believe you would say ‘notes’, on these things is sufficient for this time.

George: Yes, it’s certainly nice to be able to compare notes in this way.

Yes, but again, it is confirmation of the words we have brought to you (yes). Yes, that is the important issue.

George: There has also been mention of connection to the Great White Brotherhood. I imagine this is a human word (yes). And I have come across references to the White Brotherhood or Great White Brotherhood several times recently in my reading, and it would appear to be a much evolved group—I think way beyond Earth evolution (yes) and they are working for the good of the galaxy—our galaxy.

There has to, my friend, be those who are concerned with the well-being of many different planets (yes)—how else would it work?—how else would this Great Creative Force come into being, unless there were those advanced beings within all of creation?

George: Yes, and there seem to be various categories or groups of advanced beings (yes)—there those from angelic realms, such as yourself—

We have discussed this before—of course the angelic beings are of the higher order, but this is not something I wish to enter into with you at this time.

George: And this Great White Brotherhood would seem to be a different order (yes) working to the same good.

It is a name that has been given to some of mankind in order for them to move forward and grow. Many names are given, but names are irrelevant, it is the purpose behind them that is of importance.

George: Another group which has been described as attached to or part of the White Brotherhood is the Ashtar Galactic Command (as referred to in previous transcript), and this is a group with spaceships, and I think there have been many observations of their lights in the sky—

There are many ‘goings on’ in and around your world. I have brought to you our dear friend Bonniol (yes), for you all to experience the mind connection.

George: Yes, we are all so grateful for that!
Yes—that was to demonstrate to you that these things are possible. There is much that goes on that men in your world will dispute, will deny, or will accept and believe.

George: True—but a big factor today is that it is getting onto the Internet (yes), so that people can now use the Internet, and make up their own minds.

And use their minds to decide (yes)—that is the purpose. You can name many, many groups that are given to mediums on this Earth plane, but, my dear friends, it is the purpose behind their being that is important. That is my message to you: You take what you can, ou accept what you can, and you refute that which does not sit comfortably with you.

George: Yes, the great thing is to use our minds and to be of open mind (yes!).

Sarah: Because the truth doesn’t change—it’s only us that’s going to change.

Yes—and what you do with that truth.

Remember, the human makeup can be responsible for much twisting of words (yes). So, I would say only to you, my dear friends, that which I have always said: accept only what is acceptable to you—and that includes my own words—

George: Which we accept so readily!

Sarah: We don’t have any problem accepting your words, I must say, Salumet!

Lilian: No it’s strange how we’ve accepted all of what you’ve said, actually, and the same with accepting Bonniol.

Because you were ready for the truth—but one man’s truth, is not another’s.

So now, my dear friends, I will leave you. I will take my leave at this time, and allow those close to you to come even closer.

George: And let me thank you, Salumet for such a wonderful feeling of unity with us this evening.

There is great unity, there is a great stillness, there is a great love, which comes from this room, and I feel it is so this time. So as I leave you, my dear friends, I give my thanks and my love to you all.

All: Thank you very much!

George: We are moved by your words on that. Thank you.

George’s Notes:

1. Salumet’s quotation: It was in fact during our teacher’s very first visit to us: “We are reaching the point where your world will ... WILL be a better place. Do not doubt these words. It may seem that cannot be so. I am here to say—it will be—WILL BE!” He had then added: “We have much to teach you.” A prophetic statement indeed, made in 1994!
2. Gateway of the Sun: This is situated at Tiwanaku, Bolivia, near the southern shore of Lake Titicaca (a lake 3,825m above sea level). The gateway is a monolith, carved from a single stone block, 3m high by 4m wide and estimated to weigh 10-tons. Above the opening is a carved figure known as ‘The Staff God’.

3. Helping Groups: Whilst Salumet does not wish to go into detail, he acknowledges that there are indeed such groups as have been mentioned who watch over Earthly progress, which is nicely reassuring. And our teacher goes on to confirm that there are many 'goings on' around our planet.
4. Multi-dimensional Doorways: Our understanding cannot as yet grasp differing time dimensions. On a previous occasion, Salumet confirmed for us the existence of the Bermuda Triangle and the 'disappearances' at that location. He described it as 'travelling to another dimension of time', indicating that it is possible to travel thus either using spiritual mind or physically. The work of Carlos Castaneda was also brought into that discussion, and we learned that whereas the 'time slipping' of Carlos Castaneda was meant, the Bermuda Triangle disappearances are not intended—that is the essential difference. Salumet also suggested to us that rather than think of this as 'dimensions of time', we might think of it as 'a transmutation of energy' (energy of space-time?). Whilst we still do not have the understanding of this, it is perhaps nevertheless satisfying to know that these things have real significance and may be discussed—even with our very limited knowledge. And this seems preferable to being simply dismissive of all matters relating to dimensions of time, multidimensional doorways and the various 'complexities of universes'.
5. Luis Fernando's work: Chris, one of our readers, drew our attention to LF, and he has actually met the gentleman. Thank you Chris! LF's work runs along different lines to our own experiences. It seems that he has had physical encounters with ET-guides from the age of 13. He shares his experiences with many others and has written and published five books. He is a part of the great Earth-awakening movement of present times. And it would appear that the multi-dimensional doorway at Tiwanaku has been instrumental in facilitating some of his encounters.

Book: "Runa Antilis – The Magical Base of Los Andes". L. F. Mostajo Maertens. And according to the written word, there were also parallel happenings in much earlier times—Emanuel Swedenborg, who wrote much about his encounters—and the Apocryphal Book of Enoch tells of Enoch's encounters with 'The Watchers'.
