

SALUMET — 17th October 2016

During our usual prayers, we often include those in group needing healing and this time Lilian was in our prayers for her arthritis. We laughed chuckled at the thought of inventing a new word: De-arthritisification, which someone commented would be an excellent scrabble word.

Salumet began shortly after—audio link:

Lilian: I thought it might be you coming Salumet. You're very welcome.

Good evening.

All: Good evening.

As always we welcome your guests this time. (It was only Laura's 2nd meeting and Sabine's 1st) Several 'thank you's

I am always happy to see so many of you at one time. I would like to tell you this time my dear friends of something that will happen in your world in quite few years time. There will be coming to your Earth planet many children, who come to try to sustain peace without (throughout) all of your countries. These are special spiritual beings taking the form of children, making their mark in your world.

Within the next 4 years of your time, the first of these children will be born into your Earth.

Take note my dear friends of these words.

Lilian: This would be in most of our countries?

Throughout the world these children will appear. They will become known for their peace and their skills of being able to talk and calm. Let there be no mistake that this is a great gift from spirit, but I wanted all of you, my dear friends, to know of this knowledge now.

Thanks

I hope also that it gives you hope for your futures, because although many of us are telling you that things are becoming better, in your everyday living it must feel that that is not so. So I hope, my dear friends, that this little piece of information will raise your spirits and give you a little knowledge for your futures.

Thanks

Jan: Are these children here to help the children of the millennium that you also spoke of?

No, this is completely—this is something—this is a special gift from spirit.

Ben: Was this always planned or was this emergency help?

Nothing is an emergency.

Laughter

I can tell my dear friend is one of the newer members—yes. All is planned, there are no mistakes. So you must accept that the time will be right for this to happen.

Serena: Will they have any identifying features or mannerisms or marks?

Only in the look in their eyes; it will be obvious to all that these children as they grow have special, special gifts for all mankind.

Jan: Are they mostly reincarnated souls?

They are spirits of longevity in the spirit world, who have agreed to return...

Jan: Contracted?

Yes, to help humanity.

Jan: Many hundreds of our years ago, or more recently than that?

There are variations, depending on which part of your world is chosen for them. So I cannot give you a specific detail there.

Natalie: Will they all cross paths with each other and work together?

They will be working together, but not necessarily have the knowledge whilst they are here. To begin with, they will be just as small children, but the light will shine from them strongly.

Jan: Where their free will comes into play, might there only be a small number that eventually follow their true path while they're here, or will we see many?

These are spirits who know their pathway and I would say that none will fail at this task.

Jan: That's wonderful. Has this happened in our history many times?

Not in this way—we have always tried to help as you know, we always tried to encourage.

Ben: Why now?

Because the time is right for your Earth. You must always remember that it is not only you, but other worlds, other planets that are evolving at all times.

Sara: Yes, so they are enlightened souls?

They are indeed—only enlightened souls could take upon themselves such tasks.

Paul: Would some of them be finding jobs in governments, or places like that of power?

That will all be decided already, and yes, of course because parliaments and people of power have such a big say in your world; so it would seem to me that it is the correct placement for some.

Mark: Will they be speaking openly about their spiritual quest from an early age?

Yes, that will be one of the divine—(slight interruption as Eileen coughs) as they grow, they know what their tasks must be.

Jan: Can you say if any of us here will have any immediate contact with one of these children?

No, no.

Lilian: I was wondering if the teachers that teach these children when they're young, would they notice something special—some of the teachers?

I would say that as these children grow, it will become obvious to everyone around them that this is a special child, and as they continue to grow, it becomes ever more evident—yes.

Serena: How are the parents chosen?

They will choose their own parents, as always, but of course they know which ones to choose already. This is a plan for your Earth, so there are higher energies involved. Those who become the parents of these children will indeed feel as if they have been blessed, and that is of course very true.

Lilian: So the parents need to be...

The parents will not have information beforehand that they are special children, but they will soon realise.

Mark: They won't be 'terrible twos' then?

Chuckles

Well, they will be normal children also, so you cannot expect them to be completely perfect.

Laughter

They will come to the Earth as small children with all the problems that small children bring.

Mark: Yeah, I was joking a bit.

Yes, I am beginning to understand jokes.

Chuckles

Mark: Yes, the 'terrible twos', they're not being terrible at all really, are they? They're just being...
...themselves, yes.

Serena: Is this the same as Jesus then?

Sorry?

Serena: Would this be the same as Jesus born as a normal child?

Just a normal child, yes—Jesus, as you say, was a different story, he was there for a different time and was indeed a very good medium.

Are there any other questions?

Graham: Is this an appropriate question to ask, how many of these children there will be?

There will be in every country throughout your world one of these children.

Sara: How wonderful.

Graham: That is a true gift, yes.

Yes. It has to be so, because when you think of not only numbers, but the differences in languages, cultures, all of those things, there would have to be one child for each country, or maybe even more.

Sara: It does give hope, doesn't it?

Graham: It does yes—it sounds like a huge...

Undertaking, yes, but I wish you my dear friends to take comfort from this.

Graham: It does give enormous comfort.

Sara: It does.

Paul: I would imagine that even—when you say the first one in the next 4 years, even as they begin to incarnate, though they won't obviously be adults for a long time, it may give the Earth a boost, just having their presence.

Yes, because their energy in itself will be an upliftment to begin with; but as you say, children take time to grow and their beauty and energies will take time to show itself.

Graham: Is this knowledge being widely spread across the Earth at the moment through groups like this one?

There will be a few, but not many. I wanted you to know, because I cannot give enough thanks for the dedication and the love that you send to others; and the dedication of coming together, I feel most humbled by it, and felt that it would be a gift for you also to know in advance.

Agreement + thanks

Graham: It's so exciting—gosh!

So, if you have no questions, I will take my leave.

Lilian: I think you've given us something to think about, thank you very much.

Yes. I give my blessings to the young lady who is new to us this time.

Sabine: Thank you.

Laura: Thank you.

She has much love energy and we thank her for that.

So my dear friends, with that little piece of information, I will take my leave; I leave you clothed in my love and know that whenever you need the help on this Earth that to please call upon us. We try to help you in many ways.

Now, until next time.

General thanks

Next, Jan began to get clairvoyance from our dear friend now in spirit:

Jan: I'm going to feel really silly, but I've got to do this: (Jan made an emphatic gesture with hands slapping knees and then palms up high)

She then said I've got to say:

"Hey guys, no batteries!"

(Giggles)

(We were amused, but didn't understand the reference) Eileen tried to clarify:

Eileen: Are you looking for some batteries?

Jan: No, I don't—come on, you know! No batteries!

Mark: No batteries for your ears...George! (Delighted chuckles as we understood this referred to hearing aids that George wore due to quite severe hearing loss.)

Jan then seemed to be having a dialogue with George, who seemed to be in exuberant mood. He said that he didn't want to talk yet (speak via a medium), but being a keen scrabble player, he couldn't resist mentioning Lilian's triple word score. (de-arthritis—as mentioned during our prayers).

(More laughter)

At this point Eileen became aware of Ann's presence and commented that Ann was quietly/gently shaking her head in background at the spectacle.

Then, probably referring to his easy transition to spirit, Jan added:

Jan: He's saying he didn't need a boarding pass and reached there in record time!

Eileen: Ann's still here and says he's still got a lot to learn and she's still shaking her head patiently.

Jan: But I've got rid of the batteries.

(More chuckles)

At this point we thought they'd both withdrawn, but George had other ideas and Jan found herself blowing kisses to each sitter as a goodbye

gesture. Jan also said that George was pleased that we had picked his apples and were sharing them around. (4 large bags were sitting in Eileen's kitchen to be distributed after the meeting). Jan felt that in fact George was still there and reluctant to leave. The lamp at this point which we kept on very dimly during meetings, began flashing and we understood that George was having fun. Eileen, who was still with Ann, mentioned that George used to have nicknames and Mark confirmed one was the 'Toad', which seemed fitting this evening with George's exuberance, though he hadn't gone by this nickname for many years as age had perhaps mellowed some of these more zestful traits. There was further discussion about George's mannerisms and traits, which Jan had picked up on so well, even though some of these related more to earlier times, rather than as we'd known him in recent years.

Jan said that George wanted us to guess when he was coming next time, by these mannerisms, such as the slapping of the knees.

We were delighted and amazed at how soon George was able to return and how youthful and fun he was again.

Finally there was a rescue via Eileen. This was a deaf and mute person, so there wasn't much dialogue, but nevertheless Lilian was able to give the help that was needed to allow this one to move forward.

Notes:

Children bringing peace: There are about 196 countries on the Earth at this time, which means at least this many children arriving to help unite this beautiful Earth in PEACE.

George: A wooden 'toad' figurine on our dear George's mantelpiece, given to him many years ago.

George is truly home now and seems so much more alive than he's been for a long, long time.
