

SALUMET — 05th June 2017

During healing prayers, our thoughts reached out concerning recent terrorist attacks. We tried not to judge anyone involved. There was next, for some reason, a period of much giggling, which became contagious around the room—Salumet then spoke—audio link:

Sarah: Good evening to you and welcome.

Good evening.

General welcomes

It is always good when we come together again my dear friends. We have listened carefully to your talking this evening and we have spoken about the troubles in your world at this time, and that it is all part of the planet's evolution; but, I was happy to hear you say how much good has come from these tragedies, on both sides of the coin: the lightness and the darkness—remember, I have told you that the darkness and the light need each other. I do not want you to forget those words; I will say only this to you: that the darkness will NEVER overtake the light, the light of LOVE, because that is what it is. And all of these happenings, my dear friends, in some strange way, you may feel, it brings some kind of unity to people, because it is allowing them to think more deeply about life and what you call death. And it will only be when this understanding becomes greater, will there truly be PEACE among mankind. So, I say to you again my dear friends, be joyful in all that you do, in the same way as this evening you have found laughter and joy in your hearts, and I am sure, each one of you, has felt the better for it.

Agreed

TEACH YOUR CHILDREN LOVE, teach them UNDERSTANDING, teach them TOLERANCE OF OTHERS, tolerance not only in the religious sense, but TOLERANCE FOR ALL HUMAN BEINGS who are different from yourselves. When you can do that my dear friends, you are acting in God's name. The Great Creator has allowed you to be upon this Earth at this time, and why do you think that is so? Because you have the capabilities to show Love and Understanding to others. So I say my dear friends, take yourselves forward in your lives today, live those lives as best you can in Understanding and in Love, but firstly, you must remember that you must love yourselves; because if you cannot do that, what hope is there for others? So, think again my dear friends, as I have done and asked you often to look deep within, and when you shine brightly, allow it to touch the many others who come into your lives, especially those people you find difficult to be with; you do not have to even speak, but you can send out Love. It is such a small word is it not in your English language? And yet, it has such powerful meaning. Now, if you have any questions for me this time, I will answer some.

Paul: There is a question from a reader—sorry I'll have to put a bit of light on to read it out. (a reader from Tasmania—David) He was reading the transcript where Sarah mentioned about mankind being the least intelligent beings, then I said, 'bottom of the ladder'—that was the phrase I think that you've used many years ago to describe humans on the Earth at the moment; and his question was: "In consideration that many other planets in our universe are populated with life that is of an infinitely higher intelligence than our own, does it always imply that a much higher intelligence level is associated with beings of great empathy, compassion, understanding, a great level of spirituality if you will".

Yes, I understand, and no, advancement does not always mean spirituality is higher, let me say that to you firstly.

Paul: So technologically advancement does not mean...

Yes, yes, you understand this, (Yes) but yes, just because a planet has many abilities not known to you on Earth, does not mean they are superior in the words of Love and Understanding; in the same way as upon your Earth many human beings are intelligent, but not always sensible. So, the answer to your question is no that is not the case.

Paul: 'Intelligence' is a word some people struggle to define, (Yes) I like—I think once you defined it as: 'Intelligence is life itself'—is understanding...

Yes—it has to be intelligence for all existence; and yes, you are quite correct, let us define what intelligence is: are you speaking of intelligence as being a brain pattern? Are you speaking of intelligence as being a spiritual attribute? Or, how do you define? It depends how it is defined before you can use the word.

Paul: That's the problem, (Yes) I think on Earth, a lot of people look to these so-called intelligence tests. (IQ tests)

Yes, it is all connected with the human brain—that is what most people would understand by using intelligence; but, I would say we have to go much further than that. Of course, there are planets in existence who are far superior to mankind on this planet Earth—of course there are, it would only be natural, don't you feel, for this to be so? (Yes)

Sarah: When you say ‘superior’, you mean superior in intelligence, or superior...

That is why we are trying to define that word; if you are speaking of intelligence of the brain, that is different from spiritual intelligence, which encompasses the whole of existence and is able to use the energy of all existence. It is quite a complex matter to be speaking of.

Sarah: So, would you say—I mean, if all existence has intelligence would there be superior and inferior worlds?

I do not like the words ‘inferior’ and ‘superior’.

Sarah: Neither did I when you said superior just now actually...

Yes, it creates difficulties, but because that is the way of the human tongue, it has to be explained in those ways, those terms; but let’s just say there is a difference in all of the planets and you would not be aware of what is happening, because you do not yet, have their full understanding.

Sarah: Ah right, yes, that sounds better.

Yes, I knew you were struggling with those words.

Sarah: Yes, I was.

So I hope, my dear friend, you can reply to the gentleman, (Yes) and that it may help him a little.

Paul: Yes, thank you very much.

Graham: I wanted to ask a question about life itself and what the end game is, in the sense of, where do we ultimately become and what do we ultimately become, and I was thinking perhaps that, as our understanding and our spirituality deepens, our Love deepens that eventually we become so refined that eventually we may become part of the Great Creative Force itself, in the far, far future and perhaps in some ways we already are?

That—you have touched upon a good point, my dear friend. Of course we become much more refined as time—we will use the word ‘time’, but again, it is a word that cannot be explained fully. As time continues, let us say, the spirit becomes more and more attuned to what life is all about, (Yes) and I will say to you only this, that life itself is meant for returning to the Great Creator, that is the purpose of ALL LIFE, in ALL SPACES, to become part of that Great Creator from which we came. (Yes) You cannot say to anyone when this will happen—I cannot even tell you that. So that is something that will happen eventually, but it will take eons of time. (Yes)

Sarah: So, are you trying to say that everybody and everything will become part of the Great Creative force?

I am saying that is what everything is striving towards.

Sarah: I remember once you said to us that we would never—I can’t remember the exact words—we would never get near the Great Creative Force—something like that.

You become part of it—there is no reason to think you become close to, you are putting a name to something that cannot be named. Do you understand? It is a blending that goes on for eons of time.

Sarah: But once that’s happened, when everybody and everything is blended with the Great Creative Force...

It is for ever-increasing, it never ends.

Sarah: I was going to say, there’s always going to be somebody or something that’s striving to get there.

It is never going to happen for all things and all people to reach that stage at the same time.

Sarah: At the same time, OK, right.

Graham: Going back then, you have said that we are all inside us, we carry the spark of divinity, (Yes) which I think means that we were once part of the Great Creative Force, (Yes) and that in some time in the past we have splintered away to go on the pathways that we have.

Yes, you have put that very succinctly, (Yes) yes, that is a good way to describe it in a simple manner.

Graham: And has this happened, the breaking away to something we will eventually return to, happened? Has it happened because energy always has to keep moving?

Energy is always transmuting, yes, it has to continue onwards, but this is a very deep subject my friend.

Graham: Yes, it’s one I’ve pondered on...

Yes, I know, I know, but it is a subject many people will pull away from, because it is too powerful for their understanding; but yes, I will say to you, we are all sparks of the Great Creator and that is the reason so many people say: ‘why am I here—why do I return to the Earth?’ It is because you are trying to attain that journey forward, to become part of what is the Great Creator.

Graham: Am I right in thinking that the reason that we split away is because of energy always moving? (Yes) Otherwise nothing would ever happen...

Yes—no, energy is always moving, always changing, always expanding.

Graham: Yes, because I’ve tried to imagine the Great Creative Force that there was never a splintering away from the Great Creative Force—the spark of divinity never happened—then there would be nothing happening, in a way. Because we do splinter away from the Great Creative Force, that enables all this learning to happen.

Yes, yes you have thought this out very carefully, (Yes) I can tell.

Graham: So is this, in its own way, that the Great Creative Force itself progresses?

It is how it expands, (Yes) that is the way I would put it, it is the way that force expands, and further than that I cannot explain it to you, because we have not reached that point yet.

Graham: Yes, I can understand that.

It is difficult for me to say something that I do not know. (Yes)

Paul: Could you look at it in another way: we are sparks of it, the Great Creative Force, this is how the Great Creative Force reproduces? We are the offspring?

You are offspring, if you wish to put it that way, but it is all part of energy, you are all energy; you may have physical bodies, but you are energy, you understand that?

General agreement

And energy is always changing, but the purpose of life is to try to attain that level of existence, which comes from being part of that great force.

Sarah: I can imagine the Great Creative Force having a nucleus that is stable, and then the rest of it is, as Graham said, making it better, I don't think the nucleus could get any better...

There is no nucleus; that is all I can tell you.

Sarah: Right...I don't suppose there is one, but you could think of it like that, but it's not like that?

I would say to you, allow your minds, and I mean the spiritual mind, to go deep within and ask of these questions, you may find that you have your own answers. But I hope that has helped you with your question, my dear friend.

Graham: Yes, thank you—it's something I've been pondering on for a long time, (Yes) because it is fun to think about these things and it lifts you to a higher vibration just thinking about these things.

Yes, that is why I say: ask the questions and you will find some answers.

Graham: It helps put everything that happens around us into some kind of perspective.

Yes, so many of you, as I have said, puzzle why you are here, why you have numerous lives, what is it you are trying to learn and to achieve? But if you realise there is something to strive for, shall I say, it gives you purpose in your lives.

Graham: Yes, it certainly does—yes, thank you Salumet.

Sarah: I remember you telling us we could liken ourselves to a diamond that you dig up out of the ground—it looks like nothing when you dig it up, but you take an aspect of it and you polish it up, and that's what we're doing here, we're polishing up that aspect. (Yes) When that complete diamond is sparkling, is that when we blend back into the Great Creative Force?

No, that is when you move forward. (Oh, right) You will not become part of the Great Force at that stage. There are many stages to existence—yes.

Sarah: That's interesting. (Yes) So, when we move forward, when we've got that diamond all shiny...

It may be, I know your question, it may well be that you could return as I do to teach and to help, and sometimes it is not possible to return to live an ordinary life, because you have reached a level, a degree of knowledge, which does not allow you to return. Do you understand?

Sarah: Yes, I can understand that, yes, because it's only actually with you, you're a conglomerate of beings, (Yes) it's only an aspect of you that's come back as well.

Yes, do not forget that, my dear friend, that I come as a conglomerate of beings, so the knowledge you are given is not from one single entity or one single power, but the knowledge of many.

Graham: Yes—is your conglomeration increasing with time as you go into the future are you becoming a bigger conglomerate?

As of now, I would say no, because there are many who have work to do at this time. Until I return and others return to that conglomeration, it will remain as it is and I can tell you, it will remain for some time, (Yes) sometime of existence.

Well my dear friends, I hope I have helped you just a little and I will now take my leave of you all, knowing that I leave you cloaked in my great love.

General thanks

Sarah: Yes, you always help us Salumet when you come through, thank you.

Yes, remember I am with you all.

General thanks

After this, Sabine had the sensation of having her ears being pulled. Cho then spoke briefly—audio link:

General 'hello's'

Jan: Hello friend.

Hello. Some want to come to you. (Good) Yes—that OK?

Agreed

No trouble-makers tonight.

Chuckles

So, I'll leave you.

Paul: Yeah, I'm sure they're all keen to develop in different ways.

Yes, must have an open mind.

Agreed

You feel my hands on your head my friend?

Jan: Yes, I do.

Good.

OK they're queuing up.

Paul: Wonderful—so, we'll make sure we all do the protections (Yes) as we open up.

(Sabine then mentioned that someone was pulling her ears again)

Oh—him only a little bit naughty. (Referring to the one doing the pulling?)

Before I go, someone's saying Francis.

Jan: In spirit, Francis? (Yes) Anybody know a Francis in spirit?

Ben: It was my mum's middle name.

Di: And my grandma's sister...

Well, I leave you to sort it out.

Eileen then asked if anyone could feel their face being stroked. Sabine confirmed that she could and so Eileen suggested she ask a few questions about who was doing it. Sabine got the name 'Jennifer' who liked chocolate and was 84 years old. Eileen enquired if someone else could feel their toes being tickled, but no-one seemed to notice this. Other sitters got various impressions and sensations.

Next one spoke through Sarah—audio link:

http://www.salumetandfriends.org/app/download/7161378/2017_06_05+control+via+sarah.mp3

Paul: Hello—you're very welcome to speak.

Thank you. (Some heavy breaths)

Graham: Were you here before?

I have been trying to come to speak with you briefly.

Paul: Ah yes, sorry we didn't notice earlier.

I know you were busy with other things, that is quite OK. My reason for coming is quite simple; we have been watching you all this evening and have seen how much you are all progressing. We hope that you will all join together one more time this evening, not trying to feel what we are giving you, but that love from within we wish you to pour out to each other. That energy that will be created by this action, will uplift you all and when you leave this meeting of yours, you will take with you an energy that was depleted in your being and which we hope you will pass on to others.

Paul: Yes, so how do we go about it, we send our love to each person individually within this room?

I would say concentrate on an area in the middle of the room and let that love energy then disperse to all.

Paul: OK, shall we all try that now?

Graham: Sounds like a lovely exercise.

If you would be so kind as to wait a few moments, (Yes) so that this instrument can also join in with you.

Paul: Yes of course, yeah, thank you very much.

And thank you for your time and understanding.
Generals thanks

After the exercise (approx. 10 minutes) Eileen kept hearing the name Samuel. Jan immediately replied that Samuel was a slave (1 of 12) on a ship, shackled in chains. This was a rescue via Jan. There was no speech, but Jan was able to receive clairvoyance regarding the situation and Eileen then was able to guide Samuel towards the Light and home—audio link:

http://www.salumetandfriends.org/app/download/7161388/2017_06_05+Slave+rescue+via+Jan+-+Eileen.mp3

Eileen suggested we then send healing thoughts to those other slaves on board the ship.

We then did the usual checks to see if everyone was back and feeling OK. Sabine was still feeling her hair being pulled and so Eileen suggested she ask whoever it was to leave now. Jan then got clairvoyance that this little girl was Arabella and she had taken a liking to Sabine, but that Cho was waiting and it was time to close.

Notes:

Darkness and Light balance—Salumet spoke about this on 14/08/2000: Many expressions are used within your world. You say 'angels of light' and 'angels of darkness', or you use the terms 'good' and 'evil'. Let me tell you this my dear friends: Light and darkness are but reflections of the same vibration. That is not contradictory, but it is life itself, it belongs to the scheme of life. I hesitate here because I want you to absorb those words. Light and darkness co-exist, because they belong to the plan of all existence. After all, can you not see that perhaps the darkness—and we will use those words in order that your understanding is there—light and darkness—we will hold those words— without the darkness, which you feel to be destructive, yes? Am I right in that assumption, that you mainly feel darkness to be destructive? (Yes) What if I say to you my dear friends that clearing out, destroying, is sometimes the forerunner for rebuilding and recreation. Would you then view it in the same way? (No) No, then you understand that the vibration of darkness is necessary. The light and the darkness in your world needs to be finely balanced. We have spoken that darkness always seeks the light and that is because balance is necessary.

This is perhaps also why Salumet has asked us in the past to send our love to terrorists, paedophiles and those who seem to be in spiritual darkness, as they need the balance. (of dark and light) When there is balance, there can be peace.

17/09/2001 It gladdens my heart that not only were your prayers and thoughts with those who, after all, have come home to our world and are perfectly safe, but it gladdens me to hear that your thoughts have been with those that you call the perpetrators, because you see my dear friends, they too need help.

Intelligence: Salumet distinguishes between 'brain intelligence', which is perhaps associated with intellectual knowledge, and 'spiritual intelligence', encompassing the whole of existence. And having great brain intelligence, doesn't necessarily imply high spiritual intelligence, compassion etc. So, there are 2 forms of intelligence and this may be why Psychologists over the years, have struggled to define and even measure intelligence. Perhaps IQ tests are some measure of 'brain intelligence', but even that has been debated by academics. (Salumet also spoke of intelligence on 30/09/96)

Great Creative Force—Salumet has discussed this much over the years and it was Leslie who first broached the subject 09/10/1995: Of course, I have spoken many times of energies—many, many times. I have spoken of the many religions within your world, I have spoken on the differing names that each peoples call the one they so worship. All of these names matter not, because you see, the very life-force which you call God, is an intelligent force. How could it not be, how could there not be a perfect energy, to have created all that we have?

Les: This is what prompted the question I thought there must be an intelligent energy.

We go on to deep matters my son, but let me say this to you:

No one, no one has ever attained such perfection, as to come before this 'Intelligent Force,' as you have called it.

Let us use the term to supply these answers to you question. Within spiritual worlds, there has to be perfect laws, there has to be an intelligence behind them, for it to work, can you not see that?

Les: Of course, yes.

I am pleased you can, because so many cannot. You all are very sparks of this Intelligent Force, all of us, whether of this world or not, all of the cosmos comes from the Intelligent Force, as you call it.

It cannot be otherwise, it cannot be otherwise. But rather like each drop in the ocean, each drop can never fully understand what part it has to play, within that greater thing, can you understand?

Les: Yes, I have used that analogy myself.

All of you are so important—it is that very spark within you, that reaches out for that higher intelligence*, which you call Spirit, which is in fact only another word, for the truth of a search for that returning 'home,' of which I have spoken.

Les: Quite and to follow through what you've said, it requires all the drops to make the ocean, otherwise the ocean couldn't exist.

There has to be perfection, there has to be that reaching out for attainment from you all, to create the perfection of you all, can you see?
