Good evening.

All: Good evening Salumet.

As always it gives much pleasure to hear you speak of all things happening in your world at this present time. I wish to say to you all, not far into this future, there is much more widespread interest, not only in medicine, but in the journey of the Soul. You will find that all people in this world, will be seeking, not only as individuals, but as groups of spiritual people—it will become known to you very soon. I would wish that you all look forward to this, because the unity that it will form, will be something quite spectacular in your world.

Jan: Wonderful!

Sarah: Good to hear! Thank you.

You have I know, already spoken about medical matters that have occurred and of which I prepared you for.

Agreed

Now, my dear friends, I would like you to brace yourselves for the knowledge that Spirit is bringing to your world, very, very soon.

Lilian: And you did mention children as well that would be coming at some time. (See notes)

Yes, that is a slower process, children, but children will always be important to the voice of Spirit; they are the generations to come, they will be what we will call: ‘The Spirit of Children’, to bring news, to bring much that is needed to this world. I am not saying that your world will be a perfect place—I wish that I could—but, as far as making strides forward, it is a time to look out for. So, my dear friends, do not despair, because I know some of you still do, about your world in general; and it is understandable, because it brings great fear to many. So I say to you all, remember the words that have already been given to you, live your lives without fear, and from that fear grows hope, hope which will change the world.

If you have any questions, I would like to take them now.

Graham: These groups that you describe, will they be in touch with each other, through the internet, or will they all be separate?

They will begin as separate groups, of course, as you would in any locality in your world, it begins somewhere; but as time transpires into other things then it will become known, further afield. Yes, there has to be that unity at some point, where it becomes a universal knowledge.

Jan: Is this the start of the end Salumet, for example, of the Catholic faith? Will this have an impact?

Yes, it will have an impact on all things religious, as I have previously told you, but of course, being human, you still do not yet have what we call ‘spiritual patience’. So, allowing for the patience, yes, you will see great strides in that area.

Jan: I think we can already see—(Yes) there’s a feeling things are changing anyway, like you told us.

They have tried to change what has been spoken of, but they are not succeeding—that is what you must remember; and of course they will hold on to their beliefs as much as they can, but the Truth has to BE, the Truth cannot be kept down.

Agreed

Sabine: That’s good for any religions, isn’t it, not only the Catholic? (Yes) The Muslims and all the others.

They have served their purpose we feel for the world, and do not doubt that they have helped at some stages—the people have needed these beliefs, (Agreed) but now is the time to be free of them, to allow each and every one to find that Spirit that you ARE, but whilst you are upon the Earth—the time is coming.

Jan: Exciting times! (Agreed)

Ben: Will there be a singular event to help accelerate that process, or is it more of a gradual thing?

It will be more of a gradual happening. Yes, it has to be done thoroughly, shall I say, I believe you would use that word to describe something that has to sink in very, very slowly; and then Trust and Hope and Faith and all these other words that you use, will be accomplished.

Jan: Are we impatient within this room as well Salumet? Are we all impatient?

Graham: I'm sure we are—I am!

Well, I think you have had your answer.

Chuckles

Yes, I am filled so much with Love for you people, who put forward the Truth. We cannot ask more of you, and of course, you are all individuals, at your own individual growth. So, yes, a few may be a little more patient than others.

Graham: Salumet, I wanted to ask your permission about something, and that is, I'm trying to summarise your teachings, which go right back to 1994, and I started it as an exercise, and I've gone through the things that you said about all the many and varied topics, and I've tried to put together all the bits and pieces that you've said about things. And I've noticed that as you've progressed with us, you've kind of taken a spiral approach, where you visit topics again and again, but each time you take things a little bit further, (Yes) and I can see that—it's wonderful. But what I wanted to do, is to try and summarise your teachings—I think I'm going to need some support from your side; not everything I understand, but if you're happy for me to try, I'd like to give it my best shot.

You already are having help, (Thank you) let us make that clear. Anything which puts forward the Truth, can only be right as far as Spirit is concerned. You are doing a great 'job', I believe you would say, great job? (Agreed) Yes, and of course, we give you our blessing to work on those words; and yes, I have revisited many topics, on many occasions, but I do not try to put you done by saying that you need to be reminded often.

Sarah: ... but we do!

...but it helps, and each time that we revisit a topic, as the gentleman has said, I try to bring just a little more; and as children do, their knowledge and education is slowly, slowly, until it is understood. And after all, you are children of Spirit.

Graham: Yes, you have said that the knowledge is really only part of it, isn't it, because we have to develop in spirituality, they go in tandem, (Yes) our spirituality, our inner-knowing grows with the knowledge and vice-a-versa, they go together? Yes that is true, they do, yes.

Sarah: The other good thing Salumet, about you repeating things, is yes, it does remind us, but for new people who have joined the group, or for those new people that are reading the transcripts, it's always good to have those little bits of extra knowledge given to them. So it's helpful in that respect, as well.

I would have to say that each one of you has, over time, spoken deeply about, not what we believe, but what we know. I know in your world at this time, there are many who do not believe, but I also know that people such as yourself, who are dedicated to Spirit and Truth, continue and gently, to just drop something that makes these nonbelievers think a little.

Sarah: And even when you say something to some people, they latch onto you sometimes, because they've been seeking and have at last found someone who can give them some of the answers that they want; so that's good as well. Yes, of course. Most people, given the opportunity, will always be able, because I know you know I have said that each and every person on this planet, is given the opportunity to find out more about the Truth. It may not be directly through them, but it may come, as the lady has said, through a word or two that is spoken to them. It is almost, I can say, like a light shines from within, and the knowledge, the recognition, is wonderful to them when this happens.

Paul: One of our readers asked a question: Her name is Brooks Powell and she wanted to know more about Conglomerate Beings. She mentioned Abraham being one and a few others, and she wondered if there are many Conglomerate Beings like yourself?

I would say that the answer to your question—I understand, and we do use the Conglomerates, in the way that I have been part of a Conglomerate; there are others, but there are not many—this, again we move to an area which has never been discussed. Conglomerates consist of learned beings, who are far from what you see now. It is fortunate that we are able to descend to the level you are at. It is not easy, it is wonderful to see when it occurs, but it is not something that is overwhelming, because beings come from a long area away from what you would recognise. We are not human beings as such, we are Spirit of Knowledge, of Love, of Light. But yes, there are Conglomerates, but not many as people would expect.

Paul: So we're very privileged to have YOU.

Well, I feel humbled by those words, but they are unnecessary. When I decided that—not decided, but 'conditioned', to come to speak with you, it was because the world seemed to be rather in a state of fear. We felt many attempts had been tried, but I came to you, and I believe I am right in saying, I came to you saying, if you could not accept my words, then do not.

(Agreed) I still say that to you and it is not a case of Faith or Belief, but it is the Knowing of TRUTH.

Lilian: And it's strange how, I guess the majority of us have found it so easy to accept.

We chose wisely, did we not?

Giggles

Yes.

Lilian: I wonder if you could help me. Last week when we were sitting, someone came through Eileen and had a little talk, (Sandra) and she began to wonder if it was an Angel. Can you comment on that?

I will answer that question. (Thank you.) She was not an Angel, but she was feeling the presence of one; so she was aware of how the Angels are, but she herself was not being used by an Angel—only the awareness. But the lady still found it very interesting we know, because her thoughts have wandered for a few days, wondering the reality of that occasion. It is no different than when someone overshadows you and you can feel their bodily features; this is what was happening with this lady, except it was an Angel behind her.

Jan: On the same occasion Salumet, a number of us in the room here, when Sarah nearly had somebody come through her to speak—didn't you Sarah? (Agreed) Somebody was around—but Sarah's features seemed to disappear, (Yes) as if somebody overshadowed, or cloaked her?

That is when you are overshadowed that Spirit will inhabit the body for a very short time. But this is nothing to be afraid of ...

Jan: ... no, it was very interesting. (Yes)

Sarah: I was I think slightly out of it, I didn't realise that I was being overshadowed, it was only when the others said to me my features had gone and my face had elongated.

Yes, it is a trance of the light form that you are overshadowed and you feel relaxed and we pick our time to do so. It is no different than someone speaking—we use the voices of you as humans, but sometimes it is a little closer, and therefore you find you are able to feel more and feeling is very important.

Sarah: The thing is actually, I didn't feel anybody, I just ...

No, but the others noticed.

Sarah: Yes, I did feel slightly 'away'.

(Jan mentioned that 3 ladies in the room observed it)

Sarah: So, when I was overshadowed, what is the advantage of that?

It just means that you are receiving Spirit much more closely. You are allowing yourself to be taken a little more deeply and therefore your features, your bodily functions, everything is being used, in the same way as we use and I am doing at the moment, using the body of this instrument. (Eileen) But with her, she is put to one side, whilst I speak to you.

Sarah: It's a shame it's only just happening now, because I shall be leaving the group soon to go to Australia, so I hope that maybe I'll find a group out there where I can continue.

Yes, you must continue if you can. We like to find people who are ready to accept—and let me say, not everyone is ready—they become a little fearful, where they do not like the sensation of being used in this way.

Jan: On the topic of fear, Salumet, it may just be my own growth and my own perception, but generally I don't think the planet has as much fear surrounding it, as say, 10, 15, 20 years ago. Would I be correct in feeling that?

You feel the planet was more fearful then?

(Yes...) When we speak of the planets—let us go a little wider than the Earth planet, because you know you are all intertwined. (Agreed) Yes, and what affects others, has an effect upon you on this Earth. (Yes) Yes, there is a lot spoken, I fear, about the subject of fear; and the Earth planet has not always been a peaceful, loving one, in times gone by. (Agreed) And I will say to you, I see that there is a difference, in you said 15 of your years, there has been a change, only because the perception of people has changed, therefore there is slightly less fear.

Jan: Yeah, I think it's a tangible feeling.

You are quite right with the feeling; it is not enough to say the planet is not fearful, because it is.

Sabine: There are many places where it is fearful to live.

Yes, that is true. This is a beautiful planet, although it is a planet of learning—but always find the beauty.

Lilian: Yes, there's a lot of that! (Yes)

Jan: I think in general, my feeling is, especially in meditation, or just going within, is, man-towards-man, the fear is not as great as it used to be—we're not as fearful of one another as we used to be. I know there are still hotspots on this planet that are still war-torn etc. but I just feel that we are working in the right direction and not being as fearful and mistrusting of each other, as we once were.

Yes, I understand. know there are always elements, even in the tragic circumstances, which are working upon your planet at this moment; there are always groups who are more loving, who wish to change, and gradually will come together to get that change. So yes, you are correct in part, when you say man-to-man there would be less fear, but you can always say that if you have two nonbelievers, or people who believe too much, shall I say? You have to wonder why, face-to-face, they are angry and disbelieving and full of hatred. But it is all part of being on this planet. This planet has never been a quiet, peaceful place. (Agreed) So you have to take it back, you have to take it back, even when the planet was inhabited by these large creatures, when the planet was in an Ice-Age. You have to wonder why have all of these things happened. They have happened, my dear friends, because it is one little step forward.

Jan: While you've just been talking, it's not an ego thing, I've been wondering whether or not, it isn't the fact that it's what I feel is happening, maybe it's more to do with how 'I' feel.

You have to, you have to tame your own Soul, your Spirit first.

Jan: ...because that's my responsibility, first and foremost, is my Spirit.

Each and every one of you are responsible for what you think, what you say, what you do, and how you respond to other people. That is your responsibility and yours alone.

Jan: So, I'm wondering if that feeling that I described, when I said I had this feeling that it wasn't as fearful, is whether or not that's just my...

Do not dismiss your feelings, do not dismiss them. You can question them at times, but not to dismiss them.

Jan: So I own that. (Yes) That's a good feeling to me and I'm going to own that feeling.

And that can to changed and given to another.

Jan: Yes, and I'd like to own that feeling and that's my hope and my moving forward, (Yes) for the rest of the planet.

That is a good way to do it, yes.

Now, my friends, it has been good to join with you again. I hope some of your questions have been answered, and as I take my leave of you, I look forward to coming together next time.

Thanks

And remember my words on the changes that are coming.

Agreed

As always, I will always try to protect you as much as I can. (Thanks) And until we come together again, I leave you cloaked in my Love.

Thanks + farewells

As Eileen returned, she received clairvoyance about an Alison with tooth problems. She also got a capital 'M' for the surname and a dog lover.

This seemed to fit a friend of Lilian's.

Next, Cho spoke—audio link:

Hello!

All: Hello Cho.

You very quiet.

(Cho talking to Jan): Hello.

Jan: Hi, I was waiting for you to say: 'hello'. We've had a very nice evening Cho with our teacher.

I know I had to stand back, yeah, I know.

Jan: Very interesting, wasn't it?

I didn't stay for the talk.

Jan: You didn't?

No, I was told to wait.

Lilian: Do you ever go into the Halls of Learning and listen to these people like Salumet?

It's available for everyone—no, not yet. No, he's okay.

Sabine: You can't do it all, can you?

No, I like to visit.

Jan: He's too busy with people, aren't you Cho?

I am.

Sabine: You finally can talk, so a chance to chat away.

I know I chatter, but...

Jan: ...making up for lost time when you couldn't talk. (Yeah.) You couldn't talk properly, could you?

No, I was very scared, very scared when first I came to you. You helped me lady, and now I'm going to help you. I keep trying.

Jan: Did you hear me laughing when we first started? ...

I know, how rude, I thought how rude she be today!

Jan: When I said you've got to be in theatre as a scrub nurse, I said. Do you know what I mean, you've got to be in the theatre, making sure that all the infection has gone.

I help all I can, I can't say more, but I will help.

Jan: I know you will. I know you're going to be there Cho.

Yeah. Why you laugh when I said we had good holiday? You find it funny?

Jan: I've repeated it several times to people, that "we" had a good holiday, and I think you meant all 3 of us. (Jan, her husband + Cho)

Of course! What you think?

Jan: And the gentleman!

You very naughty lady.

Jan: And then I did say, I hope you weren't there all the time.

Giggles

Cho good!

Jan: So what did you think to where we went then? Did you like it?

I like it very much.

Jan: Beautiful isn't it? The colours are just as, nearly as nice as in Spirit maybe?

No, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no, no.

Jan: I can only imagine.

But it beautiful for Earth.

It was beautiful. I'm glad you enjoyed our holiday Cho. I did think about you.

Did you?

Jan: Oh yes, when we were sat on the rocks, on the beach.

Yes, I was worried.

Jan: You thought I was going to fall, did you?

I did, I thought you were going to slip.

Jan: I know, I stopped walking after that, because I thought, oh no, not a good idea.

Yeah, I was shouting at you.

Jan: Were you? Maybe I listened then, because I sat down.

Sarah: There's a first for everything Jan.

Chuckles

Jan: Yeah, I listened Cho, did you hear that?

I try to train you, you not listening me before.

Jan: No—I listened then, I did stop. It's going to put me back a little bit, isn't it, after Wednesday, but never mind, I will get there. I will be okay.

(Jan has an operation on her leg on Thursday)

Ben: Thursday.

Jan: Thursday, oh yeah, don't turn up on Wednesday!

You see, she think I silly, who's silly now?

Jan: I keep telling everybody it's Wednesday, Sabine reminds me no, it's Thursday, I won't be late, I'll be early...

Anyway, I do all I can for you and I try to for all of you; I know I joke with lady, but I love all of you. (Thanks)

Jan: We know that. Are you bringing anybody to us tonight?

Only if the person wants to, there could be one more, I let one more and then I think it is all for you. Is that okay?

Agreed

Ok, ciao!

All: Ciao Cho

In fact, there were no further communications.

Notes:

Journey of the Soul:

Salumet predicts widespread growth as people seek beyond earthly religions, which have served their time and are fast becoming obsolete. (see 19/10/1998)

Conglomerate Beings:

There are few conglomerate beings, and full-trance mediums like Eileen, are also rare, so this is perhaps the perfect pairing for the pure transmission of higher spiritual knowledge.

Special children:

The children Lilian refers to are children being born into every country over the next few years, in order to help achieve peace (see 17/10/2016)
