

2023/09/11-Salumet Circle Transcript

After healing prayers, Eileen received clairvoyance for Jan from daughter Cheryl in Spirit, which all made perfect sense and Eileen reassured Jan that Cheryl was: 'Absolutely covered in Light all over'—and the love-connection remains really strong.

Salumet then spoke—audio link:

http://www.salumetandfriends.org/app/download/12328936/2023_09_11+salumet.mp3

Graham: Good evening Salumet.

Good evening.

All: Good evening.

Paul: Lovely to have you back.

I am always happy to be with you. I just want to say: Sadness and happiness are part of the same bubble. So, it is good when we hear laughter and tears together. It means that progress is being made by those left behind.

It has been some time since I have come to you—some time to be able to speak with you.

(Agreed) I want to make this quite a short present—I wish you to know that we are always with you—never any reason to be further than you wish. I wish to say to this group how happy we are to have undertaken to share your physical lives with you and I do not say that lightly. So, I say to you my dear friends, rise above all the destruction in the world today and try to keep that upliftment which is for you. I know most of you still feel that there can be no reasoning for some of the actions which have taken place so recently on your earth plane. So, I say this to you my dear friends: Know that not only relatives and friends stand close by, but children and animals and people—all are part of that world which you so cherish.

If you have a question, I will take one.

Jan: Do you mean those that come close to us from Spirit, are you talking about Salumet, or the ones that are here?...

I am speaking of all things.

Jan: No matter whether here or in Spirit?

Yes, because you are all One, or you should at least be trying to be all One.

Jan: Sorry—I understand now.

I'm sorry that I have confused you.

Jan: Not at all—that makes complete sense, doesn't it guys? (Agreed) That's what we've just been saying, isn't it really Salumet, that those that we've 'lost' you feel them, hear them, some of us see them—it cannot be any other than one, however you want to look at it—Spirit and the Earth-plane as One.

When you look further afield to the other planets and all the other beings in the Universe, you will understand that we are as One. But it is understandable with the little knowledge that you have, even although you may think you know more than you do.

Jan: We like to think we do, don't we? (Chuckles)
And again, you make it into a source of laughter and joy and wonderment. So, I say this to you my dear friends, look always to the Golden Light, look forward to the new lives that will be coming and look after the ones that are passed. And I say to you all, we are so pleased with the work that you do. So, my dear friends, I will say we will speak more another time.

General thanks

Jan: Lovely—well, we all feel very privileged with what you've taught us, what we do know Salumet. Personally, I don't think I would have coped without your teaching. (Agreed)

You say that, but you know you would have coped, because you have the strength of Spirit within, shining from within to outer areas.

Mark: But it is true we are so emotionally immature and forgetful and it is difficult to become aware of that, I think.

But you must just let it be. It is a simple answer: Let it be, and we will surround you with Love and Goodness; although at this time on your planet, that may not seem to be happening—let me tell you my dear friends, there are always lessons to be learned, not only for you but for us here in Spirit.

Paul: We do understand, or are beginning to I think that everything, even if it seems chaotic, there's a...

Sara: ...greater purpose...

Paul: Yeah, it's all orchestrated for learning to Love and ultimately everyone gets drawn together ...

Mark: ...for the greater good, isn't it, in the end...

Paul: Yeah, coming together as One, eventually—I think it all helps to bring everything together.

(Power was fading by this point)

I feel this time that we have to separate and we'll discuss more next time. There is so much work to be done, thank you for your prayers and your Love.

General thanks

As Eileen returned, she got the name Henry and was aware of an astronaut, who seemed to be curiously wondering what we were doing. Eileen felt weepy, with the feeling that he'd come a long, long way. A quick Google:

Henry "Hank" Hartsfield served as commander of the first mission of Space Shuttle Discovery.
(21 November 1933 – 17 July 2014)

To finish, Graham took us on a guided meditation—audio link:

http://www.salumetandfriends.org/app/download/12329220/2023_09_11+Graham+med.mp3

Of course, we're all aware of the news that's coming in from the 4 corners of our planet at the moment and a lot of it seems to be very troubling—our planet does seem to be a bit stressed with high temperatures, fires, flooding and storms. But there is a bigger plan, a divine plan and our planet is just evolving—everything that's happening at the moment is part of something bigger.

So, perhaps as a little exercise, try to hold an image of your planet in your mind. Perhaps you can see a sphere between your hands—that is our planet—a beautiful, precious space, teeming with life. All through the history of our planet there has been change, caused by many different things—this is now understood. But our planet is a great survivor. Perhaps to try and ameliorate the changes that are happening, as an exercise, try projecting Love to our planet—healing Love to our planet.

Pause

Try to image storms subsiding, floods easing, planets regenerating...

Pause

And perhaps as a final exercise, try and say THANK YOU to our planet, for all the beauty and Love that it provides us. Our planet is precious and perhaps through more awareness mankind will begin to take better care. Mistakes have been made, but we do have the ability to learn. So, a very big THANK YOU to our planet.